

I hope and pray that you and your loved ones are well in every sense of the word. We come to this Palm Sunday without the children walking the center isle and waving palm branches while proclaiming...

"Hosanna!

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the King of Israel."

While we are so thankful for the countless people who are working tirelessly to do battle with this disease, we are reminded that Jesus is the promised, present, and victorious King. Welcome to our time of worship, apart but together, as the body of Christ. We are also reminded that His Church is meeting in a similar way, all over the world today. To God be the Glory in Christ and in His Church.

Our focus this Palm Sunday is on the One who rode into Jerusalem on a young donkey to glad shouts of unstoppable joy. This is yet again our chance to consider what...

He said:

- (Dan. 2:44; Matt.2:2; Luke 1:30-35)

They said:

- (Luke 19:37-40)

You say:

- (Col. 1:12-13)

Personal Application and Conversations

1. How do you express joy?
2. How are you handling these days of isolation and uncertainty?
3. What are you doing to remind your soul about the reality of the Kingdom of God in Christ (Psalm 145:8-13)?
4. In what ways is the kingdom of the Son impacting your daily life (Colossians 1: 9-14)?

Unstoppable Joy
