

We are celebrating excellent moms today who fear the Lord. Our family has been blessed with moms who hit that mark of excellence. Our ministry has also been blessed with moms who nurtured, protected, and instructed their families in the fear of the Lord. So, today we will focus on God's plan for our families. What exactly is a God-fearing mom and why are her children to rise up and call her blessed?

The fear of the Lord is...

God-fearing moms are...

1. Unafraid

2. Shelter

3. Intelligent and wise

4. Joyful

5. Mentors

6. Holy

7. Blessed

Personal Applications and Conversations

1. What made your mom the person she became?
2. Describe your mother's personal spiritual journey.
3. How did your mother manage fear?
4. To what extent did you experience the joy of fearing God from your mom?
5. What makes you think your mom was, or was not, a God-fearing mother and how did that affect the person you have become?
6. In what ways is your life reflecting a healthy fear of the Lord?

Celebrate God-fearing moms!
