

Somewhere along the line, we have all heard it said, “If you want something done right, do it yourself.” Correct? Maybe what we really meant was, “If you want it done your way...” because in the moment of our frustration, what we really want is our way. So, what does this have to do with Christ’s school of prayer? Well, it just may be that we all could profit by praying with two or three of God’s people in order to discover the will of God as we pray. What have you come to know about discovering God’s will through prayer in the company of friends?

Personal Applications and Conversations

Set aside the time to cultivate your relationships with God and trusted friends. Think on a few of these things:

1. Describe some of your experiences in praying with people.
2. Who are some of your most valued prayer partners?
3. How did you discover one or more people with whom you felt comfortable to pray?
4. What do you do when you feel stuck, wondering how you should pray for someone or something?
5. What do you think is the secret for learning to pray with someone?
