

Winston Churchill was Prime Minister of England through the awful years of Nazi terror. After the amazing evacuation of British troops from Dunkirk, he inspired the House of Commons and all England on June 4, 1940, with these words: “Even though large tracts of Europe and many old and famous states have fallen or may fall into the grip of the Gestapo and all the odious apparatus of Nazi rule, we shall not flag or fail. We shall go on to the end, we shall fight in France, we shall fight on the seas and oceans, we shall fight with growing confidence and strength in the air, we shall defend our island, whatever the cost may be. We shall fight on the beaches, we shall fight on the landing grounds, we shall fight in the fields and in the streets, we shall fight in the hills; we shall never surrender.” If that man and his country were so courageous and resolved, surely, we fight on, on our knees, confident in the promised, patient, and speedy justice for God’s chosen ones.

We should always pray, and never give up

God will give justice to his chosen ones who cry out to him day and night

God’s justice comes quickly among us (v.20)

Personal Applications and Conversations

1. Who among your family and friends is a patient listener?
2. How do you know when someone is listening?
3. When and why have you felt like giving up on prayer?
4. Why do you think God shows such great patience with you and all your requests?
5. What are your thoughts and questions about God's justice and special attention to the prayers of his chosen ones?
6. On what prayers do you think God is waiting patiently before he acts swiftly, to bring justice to and through his people?
