

Personal Reflections and Conversations

1. Use the word inspired to describe someone or something you've experienced.
2. How did you come to appreciate or value the Bible?
3. How do you think God inspired the Biblical authors of the Holy Scriptures?
4. There were no recording devices to capture events and dialogues between people. So, what makes you so confident that your Bible's account of history and conversations are true and accurate?
5. How do you handle the Word of God?
6. Why is it so important that you know and believe the statement, "All scripture is inspired by God"?
7. Talk about your confidence (or lack thereof) in the statement, "All Scripture is God-breathed."

God, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways, in these last days has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world.” (Hebrews 1:1-2, NASB)

“And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.” (John 1:14, NASB)

“All Scripture is breathed out by God, and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.” (2 Timothy 3:16-17, ESV)

“All Scripture is inspired by God.” To what does “all Scripture” refer? How does the translation “breathed out by God” help you grasp the issue? Why is it so important that we know and believe “all Scripture is God-breathed”? What’s the timeline for all this? How did this inspiration happen? How does this affect your relationship to God?
